INDULGE

FEATURED RED

Robert Debusson Moulin-A-Vent

Beaujolais, France $19.99

Made of 100% Gamay, Moulin-à-Vent is one of only 10 villages considered Cru Beaujolais, or single village expressions of the wine. It has a dark, intense color, and is much richer and more intense than typical for the region. Notes of spice, dark fruit, and silky tannin dominate the palate, with a surprisingly light finish. This wine is a prime candidate for aging. It can be aged easily for 6-10 years from the release date, with the best drinking window between 4 and 7 after release.

FEATURED WHITE

Antonutti Friulano

Friuli-Grave, Italy $22.99

A delicious, unusual offering from Northern Italy, made of the indigenous Friulano grape. Exhibiting a deep straw yellow color, the nose exhibits pronounced flowery notes with a nutty, almonds finish. Clean, fresh palate that pairs well with rich holiday fare. A delicious white for the season!

FEATURED CHEESE

Point Reyes Truffle Toma

7.99

Beillevaire Goat Cheese Pears

$6.99

Firefly Farms Local Goat Cheeses

$3.99
